STRONG PROTEST IS HEARD ON RETURN OF FATTY ARBUCKLE

Washington, Dec. 22.—Will H. Hays today was called upon to reverse his grant of clemency to "Fatty" Arbuckle, movie comedian, by Miss Effie MacGregor, who declared she spoke in behalf of the 500,000 class room teachers of America.

Miss MacGregor, public school teacher of Minnesota, is president of the Department of Class Room Teachers of the International Association of Public School Teachers.

Pittsburg, Dec. 22.—Two organizations of women's clubs today protested to Will Hays against the reinstatement of Fatty Arbuckle.

Mrs. E. McFail, chairman of the movie committee of the Congress of Women's Clubs of Pittsburg, representing 17,000 women, and Mrs. Samuel Borton of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, with a membership of 80,000, announced they would take up the fight to prevent the release of Arbuckle films.

The protests were contained in letters to Hays and Director of Public Safety McCandless, who was asked to bar Arbuckle films here.

Two Fires Today In The Eastern Part Of State Point To "Pyromaniacs"

Doylestown, Pa., Dec. 22.—Pyromaniacs who have been spreading terror by applying the torch to barn in Montgomery, Chester and Delaware counties are believed responsible for the fire early today that destroyed the Dublin Feed Mill at Dublin near here. Loss from the incendiary blaze was $25,000.

A barn at Radnor was also fired by the barn burners today but was saved from destruction by the prompt work of volunteer firemen.

This is the first barn saved since the arson wave has been sweeping all the southeastern part of Pennsylvania. Oiled rags were found in the logs of the barn after the fire had been extinguished.

Dog Loved Him

With his dog as sole companion, little eight-year-old Johnny Miller for three weeks slept in abandoned water tanks on the roofs of New York tenements and lived on bits of food offered by his school chums. His father was killed and his stepmother deserted him after giving him $5. Now, cared for by the Children's Society, Johnny is recovering from exposure.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF RURAL DISTRICT ASK MORE OF STATE

APPROVE LIBRARY

The Clearfield County School Directors' Convention which concluded its two-day session at the local High School building Thursday afternoon, unanimously adopted the following resolutions:—

"WHEREAS inasmuch as the country and village child should have equal educational opportunities with the city child, but on account of the low value of farm and other country property in comparison with the accumulated wealth of cities, it is impossible for third and fourth class districts to raise sufficient money, by local taxation, to provide the necessary buildings for consolidating, grading and equiping their schools in the manner in which it should be done.

THEREFORE RESOLVED that we ask the State Legislature, at its coming session, to appropriate sufficient money for establishing and equiping consolidated schools, to provide for at least fifty per cent. of such cost, in addition to all present appropriations under the amended school code.

RESOLVED That the Directors' Association, at their annual meeting in Clearfield, Pennsylvania, December 21st, 1922, express a desire for a County Library, and petition the County Commissioners to establish one."

The following officers were elected to govern the affairs of the Directors' Association the coming year:—

President. — Peter Gearhart, of Lawrence township.

Secretary.—E. H. Harmon, of Brady township.

Treasurer.—W.- P. Stephenson, of Mahaffey.

FAMOUS OLD CHURCH OF NOTRE DAME AT QUEBEC BURNS

THREAT RECEIVED

Quebec, Dec 22.—The Church of Notre Dame de la Reconzrance, the oldest basilica in the city, and many art treasures were destroyed in a fire that left the edifice in a mass of ruins early today. For a time many of the city's finest buildings were in danger, the Chateau Frontenac, the Canadian Pacific hotel and newspaper offices.

The fire was believed to have been incendiary. The chief of detectives received a threatening letter, saying the church, the most beautiful in Canada, would be burned December 18. The blaze was the climax of fires in Canada recently which burned a number of churches and was the outgrowth of many religious controversies in the last few years. Among the treasures destroyed were the religious garments of the vestrymen, said to be the most beautiful in America, a painting of Christ by Van Dyke and a painting of St. Paul by Carlo Maratta. The religious vestments of the church were donated by an old king of France. The church, rich in art treasures and religious lore, was the seat of the only cardinal in Canada. It was erected in 1647. It was bombed in 1759 by the British under Wolfe and about nine hundred persons are buried in the crypt.

KEEP WALKS FREE OF SNOW AT SIXTY CENTS AN HOUR

That Is the Way the Borough of Ridgway Does It When Snow Is Not Shoveled In 6 Hrs.

REFER TO MAYOR

The following from Tuesday's Ridgway Record we respectfully refer to Burgess Kittelberger, for his information and the information of those local property owners who each winter persistently violate the Borough Ordinance relative to the removal of snow from their sidewalks within th stated period following the fall o same:—

"The borough ordinance which states that it is the duty of the municipal authorities to see that the sidewalks are cleaned of snow is being enforced to the letter. Yesterday afternoon fifteen husky high school lads, divided into several crews each in charge of a regular member of the borough force, swooped down on the unshoveled walks, and in two hours some twenty-five or thirty sidewalk owners found that the public avenues of travel had been cleaned. There are yet some walks from which the snow has not been removed and those will receive attention this evening.

"Further perusal of the ordinance reveals that the borough is empowered to charge the property owners for such services on a cost plus twenty per cent. basis. Employes of the Borough Engineer's office were engaged today in making out bills which will be sent out immediately to those whose walks were shoveled. The snow removers were paid fifty cents an hour and this plus twenty per cent. brings the cost to a cent a minute."

The local Ordinance requires that snow shall be removed within six hours after the same has ceased falling and directs that in all cases of failure to comply with the provisions of the Ordinance the offending property owner may be haled before the Burgess and fined for his dereliction while the borough authorities are also directed to have the snow removed at the expense of the property owner, with a penalty of twenty per cent. added for violation of the law.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Fearful of a harvest of blindness, such as followed the wholesale distribution of bootlegging liquors last year, Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes today issued a general warning against whiskey buying.

"Ninety-eight per cent of beverage liquors now being peddled is unfit to drink," Haynes declared. Practically every bop carries with it possibilities of blindness and other physical injuries—even death."

Haynes issued the warning following the report that large quantities of bootlegging liquors are being peddled broadcast in many parts of the country, particularly in the coast and border lines.

THE GLASS CASKET COMPANY DESIRES TO MAKE STATEMENT

From Statement Issued By Office Mgr. Roy Nolan, It Appears There Is Scrap For Control.

ARE GOING AHEAD

"Editor,
Clearfield Progress,
Clearfield, Penna
Dear Sir:

The heading "Casket Comapny Officials Under Two Indictments,' which appeared in the Clearfield Progress of December 9th, is in error The officials of this company are not under indictment in connection with the Crager System case or any other case; nor is this Company in anywise responsible for the misrepresentations and mispractices perpetrated by the Crager people.

The truth of the matter is this. Henry Crager contracted to purchase the remaining original stock of this Corporation on April 19, 1922 Everything went along smoothly for a little while However, when we found that Crager representatives were misrepresenting things to our shareholders we immediately remonstrated with them; and upon a renewal of complains, we petitioned the local Court, in the middle of June, to restrain Crager from demanding delivery of more stock, and to annul their contract. We did this only for the protection of our shareholders—altho dealings with this Corporation had been properly conducted.

This Corporation has also actively assisted the Federal Authorities in their efforts.

Your statement that the men "said they represented The Glass Casket Corporation" is perfectly true, but their statement was utterly false, inasmuch as the stock they sold had become absolutely their own property by purchase.

Your article has caused us a great deal of unwarranted harm. Some of our shareholders in your vicinity have written us for the truth. Will you please correct the matter in the columns of your paper—giving the correction the same prominence that you gave the other article—as we believe you were actuated only by the desire to be fair, and this being so, you will wish to rectify the error.

The stockholders in your community are being advised that the Corporation is now ordering raw materials to start operation of the factory, and that we expect to begin manufacturing glass caskets by the latter part of January or the early part of February.

Yours very truly,
THE GLASS CASKET CORP.,
By Roy M. Nolan,
Office Manager."

CO-OPERATION OF INDIVIDUALS AND AGENCIES WITH ROTARY CLUB IN BIG XMAS PLANS IS TRULY MARVELOUS

Kids to Be Entertained With the Best of Candy, Movie Show, Orchestra and Big Tree at the Liberty at 10 O'clock On Christmas Morning.

AND IT WILL BE SOME CELEBRATION!

That everybody in Clearfield is interested in every body else and desirous of seeing all participate in the festivities and have a good time at the yuletide season was demonstrated to the Clearfield Rotary Club members and their guests at the regular meeting of the Club at the Hotel Jordan last evening when Secretary Howard Stewart of the Clearfield Kiddies Christmas Celebration Committee made his report for the committee.

The Rotarians decided to start a movement to give the youngsters of the town of school age a real community Christmas treat and judging alone from the report mentioned the matter is going to be attended to with the real Clearfield spirit and the satisfying Clearfield manner.

Plans Are Made.

Secretary Stewart reported that plans for the affair had been completed and everything was in shape for the arrival of Christmas to make it complete.

Free Movies.

Everybody Helping.

To demonstrate the manner in which Clearfield people took hold of the idea and generously offered their assistance it is only necessary to quote from Howard's report, as follows:—

"When the subject was broached at the last meeting dollar subscriptions were lifted from the club members present at the meeting and $42 raised. Then a group of the members got together and raised $250 which was invested in 700 pounds of good wholesome candy. Fourteen hundred boxes were procured and the local Girl Scouts kindly volunteered to put the candy in the boxes which was done and the mountain of sweets is now ready for distribution.

The Catholic Daughters of America offered their services to decorate the big tree, supplying all the decorations, etc., at their own expense, with the exception of the ornamental electric lights, which the Electric Supply Company is donating and placing.

Supt. Pearce of the Penn Public Service Company is arranging to supply light and power for the occasion free of charge, while Sam Warner, who used to know Santa Claus personally out on the level lands of Ohio, when a kid, has kindly consented to "pinch hit" for old Saint Nick, and Solomon in all his glory was never arrayed as will be the genial Sam on this festive occasion.

Last, but far from least, Manager Hartman not only donates the theatre free of charge, but will present five reels of the best pictures obtainable for the occasion, while his stage hands and other house force also volunteer their services toward making it a "perfect day" for the little people.

Prof. H. C. Thayer, of the Susquehanna College of Music and Russell Shaw will provide an orchestra for the supplying of music to "soothe the savage breasts" of young America on pleasure bent.

It had been the intention to distribute toys and other gifts among the kiddies on this occasion, but that was not deemed feasible at this time and each kiddo will be given a box of candy and be privileged to enjoy the program to his heart's content.

The $42 mentioned above has been turned over to Miss Hoyt with which to purchase stockings and mittens for the kids at the Children's Home and should there be any candy surplus the same will be distributed at the County Home.

The Fullington Auto Bus Company will transport the children from to the Children's Home free of also.

To carry out the Christmas program every Rotarian present had on hand at the theatre Monday noon, from 9:30 on [illegible] Bells are properly [illegible] guard against possible [illegible] consternation.

Following the report and that John Gearhart of the "Oh, to Frolick" committee Miller Hoyt, served a highly appetizing noon dinner. The piece de resistance venison was provided by Thomas Bratton; a mighty fine, fine, a monster buck while hunting Crystal Springs and who was a guest of P. T. Davis at the club meeting last night. It was mighty fine [illegible] ison and Bratton received the thanks of the Rotarians for his thoughtful generosity. He also by this act established the fact that he really is a deer, something that was not generally believed before this demonstration.

City Supt. Geo. E. Zerfoss had as his guest Dr. Arthur McMurray of the University of Kansas, one of the instructors at the Teachers' Institute. To hark back to William Allen White there may be something the matter with Kansas, but "there are no flies on McMurray. The genial Doctor expressed his pleasure at being present and after complimenting Pennsylvania and Pennsylvanians on their first visit said the present institute was the best Teachers' Institute ever attended. He then gave the officers a funny story of two, entitled, poem in fine style and closed with a presentation of "Senator Ford," a vaudeville character he had fostered to the admirable [illegible] which he mimicked the actor saving Dr. Murray storms of applause.

Thirteen Firemen Are Injured In Apartment House Fire At Brooklyn

New York, Dec. 22.—Thirteen firemen were injured in a spectacular fire that drove a score or more apartment house occupants in their night clothes into the street in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn today.

Some of the firemen were injured by a falling trolley wire which caused an explosion. Others were injured by the collapse of the fire walls and roof of a building occupied by a baby carriage concern. The fire was believed to have started

Five other buildings and [illegible] apartment houses were in danger before the fire was brought under control at 6:00 o'clock this morning.

Dr. J. W. Critchfield of the [illegible] Department of Health, who spoke before the Institute, was the guest Dr. Frantz at luncheon at the [illegible] ling Thursday.

CITY MOURNS THE UNTIMELY DEATH OF CONDUCTOR JAMES FLANAGAN; KILLED IN WRECK AT O-SHANTER EARLY TODAY

J. C. Flanagan, of Third street, one of the New York Central's oldest in point of service and best known freight conductors was instantly killed shortly after 8 o'clock this morning on the siding into Bloomington A-1 mine of Rembrandt Peale, located at Glen Richey.

Mr. Flanagan went out with his train this morning about 4 o'clock and had been working between Clearfield and Potts Run. A load of empties was shoved into the mine siding and the loaded cars ready for hauling away were coupled to and a start made for the main line at Mitchell Station or O'Shanter. There is a considerable grade to this "mine spur" and on account of the slippery condition of the rails the engine was unable to hold the load behind it and despite the efforts of the engineer the wheels began to slide. Quickly gathering momentum the train continued to increase its speed until getting beond control the heavy train began to line down the grade at a dangerous rate of speed.

The story of the fatal wreck is best told by William Collins who lives at O'Shanter. He and the brakeman on the train were in conversation near the main switch when the train was seen coming down the steep grade at a high rate of speed. The brakeman remarked to Mr. Collins, "That train is coming too fast. I believe the engineer has lost control of it owing to the slippery tracks." The brakeman then announced his intention of throwing the "D" switch and sending the speeding train out on the main track but it was near the time for the passenger train and this could not be done. A few seconds later some of the cars on the rear end of the train jumped the track and it was apparent that the whole train would be ditched. At this point Conductor Flanagan, who was riding on the tender of the engine, decided to make a leap for safety and jumped off the fast moving engine. As he did so the tender and the first car of the train left the rails and piled up against the bank of the cut through which the road passes and the unfortunate trainman was caught beneath the wreckage

The family barely escaped with their lives, it being necessary for Mr. and Mrs. Woodling to drop two of their children from an upstairs window into the waiting arms of neighbors attracted to the scene.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 22.—In an opinion delivered by the Attorney General's department today, it was declared that Commissioner of Public Welfare John M. Baldy was vested with full legal authority to inspect and demand the reform of any county prisons in the state.

The opinion stated that under the law the commissioner is bound to cause the inspection of all county prisons and, in the event that conditions are found which are in need of correction, to demand their correction. If this is not done, according to the opinion, the Commissioner should certify the facts to the District Attorney "to proceed by indictment or otherwise to remedy the objectionable condition."

Jimmie Flanagan, as he was affectionately known among his fellow employes and the host of friends he has made in Clearfield during his more than twenty years' residence, was one of the N. Y. C.'s most reliable and most competent railroaders. Sober, industrious and right living at all times, he possesed those manly qualities which attracted friends to him and held them as though in grips of steel. Of a cheery disposition, upright and honorable in all his dealings and undertakings he enjoyed the unbounded respect and esteem of all who knew him, and the news of his untimely death this morning caused many sad hearts in Clearfield.

The New York Central wrecking crew, which was promptly on the scene, worked for several hours before it was possible to remove the body from the wreckage, after which it was taken in charge by Undertaker F. B. Leavy and brought to his rooms here and prepared for burial.

He is survived by his widow, two sons and a daughter, the eldest of whom is but 11 years of age. He was the ideal husband and father and was idolized in his home and the sorrowing wife, and sorely bereaved little ones have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their sad and irreparable loss. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters:—John and Florence Flanagan, and Mrs. Harry Gray, of Salamanca, N. Y.; Ambrose and Leo Flanagan, Mrs. Jack Canavan and Mrs. Charles Gearhart, of Philadelphia, and William A. Flanagan, of Detroit, Mich.

The deceased was an earnest and highly consistent member of St. Francis Catholic church and his funeral will be held from that church Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, with interment in Calvary cemetery.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

This is a pretty decent old world of ours after all, and the honest people are very largely in the majority, regardless of muck rakers, muck raking and the evil minded pessimist. We are moved to make this observation by our own experience the past two weeks. A couple of weeks ago a West Side young lady lost $15 in money, a ten and a five dollar bill. With Christmas approaching with its universal demand for money one would think that if the proper occasion for temptation ever arises that would be one of the times. Yet no sooner had the ad recounting the loss appeared in The Progress than a bright-eyed Hillsdale lad, who goes to Junior High School, popped into the office with the money.

Experience No. 2 occurred the past week. A Second Ward young lady left her pocketbook containing a $20 bill on Turnpike avenue, and when notice of loss appeared in this paper a Paradise young man walked in and turned over pocketbook and money.

You bet, Miranda; the average American is as honest as the day is long.

Our good friend Dr. Thomas E Finegan failed to keep his appointment with County Superintendent Trostle to address the Clearfield County Teachers' Institute. A lot of people who came to Clearfield expressly to hear Dr Finegan were very much disappointed when Pennsylvania's efficient school head failed to appear, and very naturally many of them were greatly peeved at that failure.

We do not know why Dr. Finegan did not appear, but suppose he had good and sufficient reason, altho we do believe he was a little derelict in not notifying Supt. Trostle that he could not be present, especially so when we recall that Dr. Lewis, his deputy and substitute, told the Institute Dr. Finegan asked him as early and "pinch hit" for him. However, be that as it may, Dr. Finegan's failure to keep his appointment roused one of these fellows, who put himself out to hear him, to righteous wrath and he unburdened himself of that wrath in a communication to The Progress yesterday. We simply recite this fact at this time to point a moral or make a comparison. This correspondent railed against Dr. Finegan (and we already have agreed he had some little reason therefor) without knowing why or what caused Dr. Finegan to change his plans relative to the making of the Clearfield trip. All through his tirade he breathes his personal disappointment, which moves us to remark that that is just one of the strong points in Dr. Finegan's favor, because about every criticism we have seen of Finegan and Fineganism since he took charge of affairs educational in Pennsylvania was based very largely on personal pique or disappointment, and was aimed not so much at what he did, but at his manner of doing it. When a man is put in charge of so great a system as that of the Department of Education in Pennsylvania, and so far behind the times as that was when he assumed charge three short years ago he naturally has to cause a lot of personal disappointment when he is pruning off the dead wood and getting down to healthy growth as he has so magnificently done, and the only thing surprising to us at this distance is that there hasn't been even a great deal more of it.

Finegan's end has certainly justified the means thus far. Let us hope in the interest of our public schools that he may be allowed to continue the work he has so signally begun, and maybe some time later on we can induce the worthy state school head to make a date with us and keep it.

Finegan is "there' both ways from the middle," even if he did disappoint us

That a man is best known by his habits and his traits of character was proven today when the news of the death of James Flanagan was broadcasted about the city. One of our citizens, on being told of the accident, stated that he did not know Mr. Flanagan. The informant then said, "Do you not recall seeing (here a physical description was given) almost always leading a couple of his children uptown during the evening?"

Instantly the identity was made. The man was linked with his children, to whom he was a companion.

What better tribute could be paid to James Flanagan?

The court opinion that the head of the Welfare Department of the State government has the right to inspect, and is bound to inspect, all county jails, is a step in the right direction.

Men may be put in prison because they are dangerous to society or for the purpose of punishment for a wrong deed, but in neither case is there any justification for allowing conditions which debase them, contributes to an outraged state of mind and wrecks their health.

We hope Dr. Baldy will begin at once. He will reveal conditions which will shock a civilized people.

We cannot help but be reminded at this season of the year of many of the really worthwhile things that people are doing. Some few months ago when a couple of families in this neighborhood lost their homes and their clothing by fire, the C. D. of A. stepped in and gave substantially of the necessities to put them on their feet and make them comfortable. A few weeks ago a man was convicted of a heinous crime by the criminal court and given a long sentence. His family was left destitute. The C. D. of A. clothed the children and helped in other ways to lighten their burden. This same organization is attending, at considerable expense, to the trimming of the Christmas tree at the Liberty Theatre for the big time Monday.

None of the beneficiaries of this organization in these cases cited belong to the same church as the members of the C. D of A.

The C. D. of A. is one of the auxiliary organizations of the sect that the Ku Klux Klan would teach us to despise and persecute.

How, in your mind, do these organizations measure up by the standard of Americanism and the measure of Christianity?

The Greatest Birthday

Three wise men followed the star that lead to the manger where the spirit of service was born into the world 1900 years ago.

All wise men today build their lives and the institution which they establish on this same spirit of service and helpfulness.

Our vision of service to this community enables this bank to enter very genuinely into the Yuletide spirit with its friends.

$104.00

The Girl Scouts are able to report the following total sale of tuberculosis stamps—$104.00 worth. Most of this was sold on the first of December when Dr. Frantz met the girls at the Scout room and assigned territory. It was a bad rainy day but the weather seemed not to be a deterrent and the bulk of the work was quickly and cheerfully done. Selling was done by teams of two, the following making the largest sales: Anna Hall and Nan Quigley of Troop 7, $16.52; Rebecca Carey and Edith Shaw, Troop 5, $15.68.

Troop 3 distributed all the posters to the business places and Troop 6 to the schools. Some stamps and stickers are still in the hands of scouts, the total to be added later.

It is thoroughly proved that the scouts are an efficient and willing ally and will continue to be an asset to the town.

The Christmas box sent this morning to Cresson was very creditable to the few scouts who had apparently read the paper. Made up by contributions from a small fraction of the total membership, it was nevertheless big enough to make a real addition to the holiday of the little patients at the sanitarium.

The list of names of girls sent by the superintendent to whom scouts were to write still hanging in the scout rooms with half the number untaken. This is not new business but cupids mail. A Christmas note to a sick child is worth far more than the trouble of writing it so scouts who have not done so are urged to clean up the list.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

Concerning Riches.

There is a burden of care in getting riches, fear in keeping them, temptation in using them, guilt in abusing them, sorrow in losing them and a burden of account at last to be given up concerning them.

Most Desirable Qualification.

Common sense is the genius of humanity.—Goethe.

The Second King.

That men may rise in time and lasting memory from evil conditions is evidenced by the fact that a young French nobleman named Henri D'Orleans, who fled from the French revolution to Lot don, is known to this day as "The S. ond King." He made his living by dressing salads in the French and Italian ways—then unknown in England—and soon attained great fame and fortune.

Much Trouble for an Excuse.

We can't expect much marital reforms in the world as long as men are cussed enough to join the American Astronomical society just so they can stay out every night without making excuses.—Buffalo Evening Times.

Ty Cobb's First Snow in Decade

PERIODS OF LIFE

Have You Reached The Age of 40?

People aged 40 or over should guard against colds, grippe, influenza and pneumonia. The following symptoms indicate physical decay and lessen your resistance to attacks of colds:

Constipated bowels — indigestion, sour gassy stomach, pain around the heart, shortness of breath, congested liver and weak kidneys.

Health, the most precious gift in life, should be carefully watched by everyone. Millions of people today are guarding their health and keeping their system regulated by using Bulgarian Herb Tea.

The rich juices, brewed from the roots, barks, leaves, herbs, plants and flowers of Bulgarian Herb Tea, taken hot at bedtime stimulate and freshen the tired, run-down system and aid nature to cast the waste poisons from the clogged intestines and bowels. Just make up your mind to keep strong and well by using Bulgarian Herb Tea at least once each week. Just watch your health improve. You will never want to be without it. See your druggist today. He can honestly recommend Bulgarian Herb Tea.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. Harry Addleman, George street, was taken to Clearfield hospital Wednesday evening, suffering from a serious attack of pneumonia. The report this morning states that her condition is somewhat improved.

Ray Hile and wife, late of Berryville, Va., arrived in Curwensville yesterday afternoon and expect to spend the holidays with relatives. Mrs. Hile was Pearl Rafferty and the couple were married in Akron, Ohio, some three months ago.

The many friends of Miss Bessie Milliron, daughter of James A. and Frances Milliron, of Ridge avenue will be surprised to learn of that young lady's marriage which took place in Washington, D. C., two weeks ago. The groom is a business man in the National City, whose name is C. W. MacSweeney. The ceremony was performed in the church of Christ.

The Progress correspondent is in receipt of the roll of honor pupils in the Curwensville public schools during education week. The tabulated list of names is too lengthy for publication, we are more than sorry to state. The American Legion expect to further honor these honor pupils but it has not been made public just how it is going to be done. The Legion deserves great credit for the promoting of Honor Week in the Curwensville schools. Joshua Earl Sipes Post does not always make public what it is doing for education and humanity. It is one of the greatest factors for good in this community. Any one who is eligible to belong to the American Legion thereby bears with him a mark of distinction and honor that no money can buy and that nothing can take away.

Orville King, son of Dr. M. O. King, who has been working in Philadelphia for some months past, has returned to his Curwensville home and will spend the holiday season with his parents and friends.

The report in circulation yesterday stating that the Patton bank block had been sold to a combination of young men is erroneous, according to a statement made by C. S. Russell, to the writer. As we stated a few days since, negotiations are going on for the purchase of the building, but up until a late hour last night no sale or transfer had been made.

It was reported to the writer yesterday morning that there were several destitute families residing within this borough. One family, where in there is sickness, had no coal and very little to eat. We reported the condition of this one particular case to one of the town's merchants, and he declared that he would attend to this case individually, and we have sufficient faith in his sincerity to believe that he did just what he said he

Jim Corbett Back in Ring

"Gentleman Jim" made a brief return to the squared circle, not to face an opponent but to referee a bout between a couple of tiniweights in a Christmas Fund benefit. The two youngsters who did their stuff like veterans are Willie Wargo (right) and Harold Jensen (left). Note Willie's business-like crouch.

Samaritans step forward and do likeSamaritans ste pforward and do likewise. "Bread cast upon the waters will be returned ten fold," so saith the scripture. No doubt there are many more families in Curwensville who would appreciate a little Christmas cheer in the way of food, coal or clothing.

It was given out in town the other day that a new six foot vein of coal had been discovered in the Glen Richey section and some feet underneath the vein that has been almost worked out. If this statement proves correct, and for the sake of the residents who reside in our sister town, we sincerely hope it will, it is bound to renew activities in the coal mining industry never before attained in that end of Lawrence township.

Married, on Thursday evening, by Rev. Dr. Collins, Leo Sschrock, of Irona, and Miss E. Gertrude Rider, of Curwensville. The bride is a daughter of James Rider.

High Hat Turned Into Handbag

At a London social function the other day one of the women guests carried a bag which was generally remarked upon. The material looked like black velvet, but had a remarkable sheen. The owner explained she had made the bag herself out of her husband's old top hat, from which she had peeled the beaver. Ivory mounts completed the scheme.

"Old Libby Prison."

The Chicago Historical society says that when the Libby prison was torn down from within the present Old Colony building many of the brick which were in the bona fide walls of the prison were taken by the wrecking company and became the foundation for a livery stable. The contents of the museum and some of the bricks, however, are in the Gunther collection located in the building of the Chicago Historical society.

Not Much to It.

Frocks for Girls

COPYRIGHT BY BELL SYNDICATE

An added fulness at each side held in by ribbon ties, gives one of the newest dresses the popular silhouette. Straight unbroken fronts and back panels are seen on many of the smartest frocks and the severity of the style is usually relieved in some such manner as in the model sketched. Blouses and tunics are always becoming to young girls and here is one that carries the style by pleating from neckline to hemline. Sleeves are cushed to show a lining of contrasting color are new and pleasing.

Took It Literally.

For the first time in her life a young woman was traveling on a train. When the train pulled up at a station, en route, she heard the conductor call, "All change here." She rushed to the door and said to the brakeman "Would you mind giving me my brown gown on the trunk in the baggage car?"

Mental Brutality.

Muggins—"He is being sued for divorce. His wife charges him with mental brutality. I wonder what that means?" Buggins—"Mental brutality is the crime practiced by a truthful man who tells a woman just exactly what he thinks of her."

Politics.

Politics is the only serious subject that men think themselves qualified to act upon without any previous education whatever. The awful fact of politics is that we do not take the trouble seriously to understand the political situation.—Hugh Price Hughes.

A Medical Epitaph.

I can't beat "Tears cannot restore him, therefore I weep," says a correspondent, but the following pithy epitaph on the tomb of a doctor (given me, I hasten to say by a medical man) comes near it: "He survived all his patients."—Manchester Guardian.

WE BEG PARDON, MRS. FLEMING

A long time since we decided that if come person horned into our office and sort of offhandedly informed us Lincoln had been shot, we would refuse to give ear to or credence to the story until we had opportunity to get hold of a Barnes History of the U. S. A. and satisfied ourselves after due investigation the story was true.

We deviated yesterday far enough from our hitherto unshaken resolve to print a story given us about a little occurrence down in Fourth Ward yesterday. Our informant stated that Mrs. J. B. Fleming had attempted to hustle along the range fire by the oil can route and had received painful burns about the hand and arm while prompt action by neighbors saved her Eighth street home from destruction by fire.

We printed the story, too. Today that same informant tells us it was not Mrs. Fleming at all but her neighbor, Mrs. Victor Temple and that Mrs. Fleming was one of the fire brigade and first aid corps to the rescue when Mrs. Temple emulated Mollie Maguire.

Our hat is off to Mrs. Fleming and we humbly beg her pardon while assuring her this is the first mistake we ever acknowledged.

"LISTEN TO ME," A GREAT SHOW, IS COMING JAN. 2nd.

It is interesting to know that America's greatest success, "Listen to Me," which swept all before it last season, proving one of the most popular and entertaining offerings of the entire season's output in the musical comedy fields, will be presented at Driggs Theatre Tuesday night, January 2nd.

"Listen To Me" is a modern extravaganza; it possesses music, dancing, lights, novelties and pretty girls it is gorgeously mounted and whirls one from Bades to the North Pole and back through candyland, presenting some of the most bewildering scenic effects ever offered before the footlights, particularly the snow storm, glaciers and aurora borealis in the land of the midnight sun.

With a cast of par-excellence, "Listen To Me" is promise das one of the few really dependable offerings of the season. Written by Charles George, who penned the book, lyrics and music, it possesses every available bit of comedy, brilliant setting and many of the smartest musical scores heard in a long time.

Tuneful and gay, with a romping, singing, dancing chorus of bewitch girls, who had fair to rival the Ziegfeld types, have proven a great asset to this remarkable success from its opening performance, and the theatre goers may look forward to their visit when they will share honors with the excellent cast whom they are called upon to support.

Many have become charmed wit. its tuneful score—others have adored its gorgeous scenic investiture, while many have claimed that the cast and chorus have been responsible for its phenomenal success; however, it requires a combination of book, music, novelties, costumes, cast and chorus to successfully present a great extravaganza and "Listen To Me" is indeed fortunate in possessing these many attributes.

Endurance Test.

Wealth is honorable, and may be used most blessedly when men regard themselves as being what indeed they are—stewards of it, and not the owners; when they know how to acquire without avarice, and how to spend without grudging.—Archdeacon Farrar.

Gasoline Lost by Evaporation.

The volume of gasoline that is lost by evaporation in one stage in the handling of crude oil is equal to one-thirtieth of the country's annual gasoline production.

Uncle Sam Mixes In the Turkish Broil

Almost any pleasant morning, these last five weeks, a smooth-shaven, boyish-looking American could have been seen walking bareheaded from the Hotel Beaurivage in Lausanne along the lakeside to another hotel, to join a company of top-hatted, frock-coated, dignified European diplomats.

If Richard Washburn Child was only an "unofficial observer" at the Lausanne Conference it would be difficult to deny that he was the "observed of all observers." An "unofficial observer" on such occasions as these is generally supposed to be seen and not heard, but Ambassador Child has been heard—and listened to attentively—at Lausanne. Europe heard this representative of a nation officially committed to non-interference in European affairs arise day after day to state definitely and forcefully the policy of the United States on points of controversy between the Western Powers and the new Turkey which has replaced the "Sick Man of Europe."

Press correspondents at Lausanne have called attention to the leading part played in the deliberations by our observers. What does this mean, our editors have been wondering, as they read the dispatches from the Swiss city. Are we really intervening? "Isn't Mr. Child wading into the Lausanne Conference rather more deeply than is permitted to a mere observer?" queries the Dallas News (Dem.). The United States, remarks the Utica Press (Ind.), "would appear to be in a position of playing an important if not a decisive role." Others wonder what will come next.

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week (Dec 23) takes up the story of American participation at Lausanne as sketched from day to day by correspondents and interpreted by contemporaneous editorial comment. Other timely news-articles in this number are:

STRONG PROTEST IS HEARD ON RETURN OF FATTY ARBUCKLE

Washington, Dec. 22.—Will H. Hays today was called upon to reverse his grant of clemency to "Fatty" Arbuckle, movie comedian, by Miss Effie MacGregor, who declared she spoke in behalf of the 500,000 class room teachers of America.

Miss MacGregor, public school teacher of Minnesota, is president of the Department of Class Room Teachers of the International Association of Public School Teachers.

Pittsburg, Dec. 22.—Two organizations of women's clubs today protested to Will Hays against the reinstatement of Fatty Arbuckle.

Mrs. E. McFail, chairman of the movie committee of the Congress of Women's Clubs of Pittsburg, representing 17,000 women, and Mrs. Samuel Borton of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, with a membership of 80,000, announced they would take up the fight to prevent the release of Arbuckle films.

The protests were contained in letters to Hays and Director of Public Safety McCandless, who was asked to bar Arbuckle films here.

Two Fires Today In The Eastern Part Of State Point To "Pyromaniacs"

Doylestown, Pa., Dec. 22.—Pyromaniacs who have been spreading terror by applying the torch to barn in Montgomery, Chester and Delaware counties are believed responsible for the fire early today that destroyed the Dublin Feed Mill at Dublin near here. Loss from the incendiary blaze was $25,000.

A barn at Radnor was also fired by the barn burners today but was saved from destruction by the prompt work of volunteer firemen.

This is the first barn saved since the arson wave has been sweeping all the southeastern part of Pennsylvania. Oiled rags were found in the logs of the barn after the fire had been extinguished.

Dog Loved Him

With his dog as sole companion, little eight-year-old Johnny Miller for three weeks slept in abandoned water tanks on the roofs of New York tenements and lived on bits of food offered by his school chums. His father was killed and his stepmother deserted him after giving him $5. Now, cared for by the Children's Society, Johnny is recovering from exposure.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF RURAL DISTRICT ASK MORE OF STATE

APPROVE LIBRARY

The Clearfield County School Directors' Convention which concluded its two-day session at the local High School building Thursday afternoon, unanimously adopted the following resolutions:—

"WHEREAS inasmuch as the country and village child should have equal educational opportunities with the city child, but on account of the low value of farm and other country property in comparison with the accumulated wealth of cities, it is impossible for third and fourth class districts to raise sufficient money, by local taxation, to provide the necessary buildings for consolidating, grading and equiping their schools in the manner in which it should be done.

THEREFORE RESOLVED that we ask the State Legislature, at its coming session, to appropriate sufficient money for establishing and equiping consolidated schools, to provide for at least fifty per cent. of such cost, in addition to all present appropriations under the amended school code.

RESOLVED That the Directors' Association, at their annual meeting in Clearfield, Pennsylvania, December 21st, 1922, express a desire for a County Library, and petition the County Commissioners to establish one."

The following officers were elected to govern the affairs of the Directors' Association the coming year:—

President. — Peter Gearhart, of Lawrence township.

Vice Presidents.—R J. Mattern, of Decatur township, and H. C. Connor, of Burnside borough.

Secretary.—E. H. Harmon, of Brady township.

Treasurer.—W.- P. Stephenson, of Mahaffey.

THREAT RECEIVED

Quebec, Dec 22.—The Church of Notre Dame de la Reconzrance, the oldest basilica in the city, and many art treasures were destroyed in a fire that left the edifice in a mass of ruins early today. For a time many of the city's finest buildings were in danger, the Chateau Frontenac, the Canadian Pacific hotel and newspaper offices.

The fire was believed to have been incendiary. The chief of detectives received a threatening letter, saying the church, the most beautiful in Canada, would be burned December 18. The blaze was the climax of fires in Canada recently which burned a number of churches and was the outgrowth of many religious controversies in the last few years. Among the treasures destroyed were the religious garments of the vestrymen, said to be the most beautiful in America, a painting of Christ by Van Dyke and a painting of St. Paul by Carlo Maratta. The religious vestments of the church were donated by an old king of France. The church, rich in art treasures and religious lore, was the seat of the only cardinal in Canada. It was erected in 1647. It was bombed in 1759 by the British under Wolfe and about nine hundred persons are buried in the crypt.

KEEP WALKS FREE OF SNOW AT SIXTY CENTS AN HOUR

That Is the Way the Borough of Ridgway Does It When Snow Is Not Shoveled In 6 Hrs.

REFER TO MAYOR

The following from Tuesday's Ridgway Record we respectfully refer to Burgess Kittelberger, for his information and the information of those local property owners who each winter persistently violate the Borough Ordinance relative to the removal of snow from their sidewalks within th stated period following the fall o same:—

"The borough ordinance which states that it is the duty of the municipal authorities to see that the sidewalks are cleaned of snow is being enforced to the letter. Yesterday afternoon fifteen husky high school lads, divided into several crews each in charge of a regular member of the borough force, swooped down on the unshoveled walks, and in two hours some twenty-five or thirty sidewalk owners found that the public avenues of travel had been cleaned. There are yet some walks from which the snow has not been removed and those will receive attention this evening.

"Further perusal of the ordinance reveals that the borough is empowered to charge the property owners for such services on a cost plus twenty per cent. basis. Employes of the Borough Engineer's office were engaged today in making out bills which will be sent out immediately to those whose walks were shoveled. The snow removers were paid fifty cents an hour and this plus twenty per cent, brings the cost to a cent a minute."

The local Ordinance requires that snow shall be removed within six hours after the same has ceased falling and directs that in all cases of failure to comply with the provisions of the Ordinance the offending property owner may be haled before the Burgess and fined for his dereliction while the borough authorities are also directed to have the snow removed at the expense of the property owner, with a penalty of twenty per cent. added for violation of the law.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Fearful of a harvest of blindness, such as followed the wholesale distribution of bootlegging liquors last year, Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes today issued a general warning against whiskey buying.

"Ninety-eight per cent of beverage liquors now being peddled is unfit to drink," Haynes declared. Practically every bop carries with it possibilities of blindness and other physical injuries—even death."

Haynes issued the warning following the report that large quantities of bootlegging liquors are being peddled broadcast in many parts of the country, particularly in the coast and border lines.

THE GLASS CASKET COMPANY DESIRES TO MAKE STATEMENT

From Statement Issued By Office Mgr. Roy Nolan, It Appears There Is Scrap For Control.

ARE GOING AHEAD

"Editor,
Clearfield Progress,
Clearfield, Penna
Dear Sir:

The heading "Casket Comapny Officials Under Two Indictments,' which appeared in the Clearfield Progress of December 9th, is in error The officials of this company are not under indictment in connection with the Crager System case or any other case; nor is this Company in anywise responsible for the misrepresentations and mispractices perpetrated by the Crager people.

The truth of the matter is this. Henry Crager contracted to purchase the remaining original stock of this Corporation on April 19, 1922 Everything went along smoothly for a little while However, when we found that Crager representatives were misrepresenting things to our shareholders we immediately remonstrated with them; and upon a renewal of complains, we petitioned the local Court, in the middle of June, to restrain Crager from demanding delivery of more stock, and to annul their contract. We did this only for the protection of our shareholders—altho dealings with this Corporation had been properly conducted.

This Corporation has also actively assisted the Federal Authorities in their efforts.

Your statement that the men "said they represented The Glass Casket Corporation" is perfectly true, but their statement was utterly false, inasmuch as the stock they sold had become absolutely their own property by purchase.

Your article has caused us a great deal of unwarranted harm. Some of our shareholders in your vicinity have written us for the truth. Will you please correct the matter in the columns of your paper—giving the correction the same prominence that you gave the other article—as we believe you were actuated only by the desire to be fair, and this being so, you will wish to rectify the error.

The stockholders in your community are being advised that the Corporation is now ordering raw materials to start operation of the factory, and that we expect to begin manufacturing glass caskets by the latter part of January or the early part of February.

Yours very truly,
THE GLASS CASKET CORP.,
By Roy M. Nolan,
Office Manager."

CO-OPERATION OF INDIVIDUALS AND AGENCIES WITH ROTARY CLUB IN BIG XMAS PLANS IS TRULY MARVELOUS

Kids to Be Entertained With the Best of Candy, Movie Show, Orchestra and Big Tree at the Liberty at 10 O'clock On Christmas Morning.

AND IT WILL BE SOME CELEBRATION!

That everybody in Clearfield is interested in every body else and desirous of seeing all participate in the festivities and have a good time at the yuletide season was demonstrated to the Clearfield Rotary Club members and their guests at the regular meeting of the Club at the Hotel Jordan last evening when Secretary Howard Stewart of the Clearfield Kiddies Christmas Celebration Committee made his report for the committee.

The Rotarians decided to start a movement to give the youngsters of the town of school age a real community Christmas treat and judging alone from the report mentioned the matter is going to be attended to with the real Clearfield spirit and the satisfying Clearfield manner.

Plans Are Made.

Secretary Stewart reported that plans for the affair had been completed and everything was in shape for the arrival of Christmas to make it complete.

Free Movies.

Everybody Helping.

To demonstrate the manner in which Clearfield people took hold of the idea and generously offered their assistance it is only necessary to quote from Howard's report, as follows:—

"When the subject was broached at the last meeting dollar subscriptions were lifted from the club members present at the meeting and $42 raised. Then a group of the members got together and raised $250 which was invested in 700 pounds of good wholesome candy. Fourteen hundred boxes were procured and the local Girl Scouts kindly volunteered to put the candy in the boxes which was done and the mountain of sweets is now ready for distribution.

The Catholic Daughters of America offered their services to decorate the big tree, supplying all the decorations, etc., at their own expense, with the exception of the ornamental electric lights, which the Electric Supply Company is donating and placing.

Supt. Pearce of the Penn Public Service Company is arranging to supply light and power for the occasion free of charge, while Sam Warner, who used to know Santa Claus personally out on the level lands of Ohio, when a kid, has kindly consented to "pinch hit" for old Saint Nick, and Solomon in all his glory was never arrayed as will be the genial Sam on this festive occasion.

Last, but far from least, Manager Hartman not only donates the theatre free of charge, but will present five reels of the best pictures obtainable for the occasion, while his stage hands and other house force also volunteer their services toward making it a "perfect day" for the little people.

Prof. H. C. Thayer, of the Susquehanna College of Music and Russell Shaw will provide an orchestra for the supplying of music to "soothe the savage breasts" of young America on pleasure bent.

It had been the intention to distribute toys and other gifts among the kiddies on this occasion, but that was not deemed feasible at this time and each kiddo will be given a box of candy and be privileged to enjoy the program to his heart's content.

The $42 mentioned above has been turned over to Miss Hoyt with which to purchase stockings and mittens for the kids at the Children's Home and should there be any candy surplus the same will be distributed at the County Home.

The Fullington Auto Bus Company will transport the children from to the Children's Home free of also.

To carry out the Christmas program every Rotarian will be on hand at the theatre Monday morning from 9:30 on [illegible] the halls are properly [illegible] guard against possible [illegible] consternation.

Following the report and that John Gearhart of the "Oh, Ted-dick" committee [illegible] served a highly [illegible] dinner. The piece de resistance venison was provided by [illegible] Bratton, a mighty hunter, who got a monster buck while hunting Crystal Springs and who was a guest of P. T. Davis at the club meeting last night. It was mighty fine venison and Bratton received the thanks of the Rotarians for his thoughtful generosity. He also by this act established the fact that he really is a deer, something that was not generally believed before this demonstration.

City Supt. Geo. E. Zerfoss had as his guest Dr. Arthur McMurray of the University of Kansas, one of the instructors at the Teachers' Institute. To hark back to William Allen White there may be something the matter with Kansas, but "there are no flies on McMurray. The genial Doctor expressed his pleasure at being present and after complimenting Pennsylvania and Pennsylvanians on their first visit said the present institute was the best Teachers' Institute ever attended. He then gave the officers a funny story of two, recited a poem in fine style and closed with a presentation of "Senator Ford," a vaudeville character he had fathered to the admirable [illegible] which he mimicked the actor saying Dr. Mc Murray storms of applause.

New York, Dec. 22.—Thirteen firemen were injured in a spectacular fire that drove a score or more apartment house occupants in their night clothes into the street in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn today.

Some of the firemen were injured by a falling trolley wire which caused an explosion. Others were injured by the collapse of the fire walls and roof of a building occupied by a baby carriage concern. The fire was believed to have started

Five other buildings and [illegible] apartment houses were in danger before the fire was brought under control at 6:00 o'clock this morning.

Dr. J. W. Critchfield of the [illegible] Department of Health, who spoke before the Institute, was the guest of Dr. Frantz at luncheon at the Kissling Thursday.

J. C. Flanagan, of Third street, one of the New York Central's oldest in point of service and best known freight conductors was instantly killed shortly after 8 o'clock this morning on the siding into Bloomington A-1 mine of Rembrandt Peale, located at Glen Richey.

Mr. Flanagan went out with his train this morning about 4 o'clock and had been working between Clearfield and Potts Run. A load of empties was shoved into the mine siding and the loaded cars ready for hauling away were coupled to and a start made for the main line at Mitchell Station or O'Shanter. There is a considerable grade to this "mine spur" and on account of the slippery condition of the rails the engine was unable to hold the load behind it and despite the efforts of the engineer the wheels began to slide. Quickly gathering momentum the train continued to increase its speed until getting beond control the heavy train began to line down the grade at a dangerous rate of speed.

The story of the fatal wreck is best told by William Collins who lives at O'Shanter. He and the brakeman on the train were in conversation near the main switch when the train was seen coming down the steep grade at a high rate of speed. The brakeman remarked to Mr. Collins, "That train is coming too fast. I believe the engineer has lost control of it owing to the slippery tracks." The brakeman then announced his intention of throwing the "D" switch and sending the speeding train out on the main track but it was near the time for the passenger train and this could not be done. A few seconds later some of the cars on the rear end of the train jumped the track and it was apparent that the whole train would be ditched. At this point Conductor Flanagan, who was riding on the tender of the engine, decided to make a leap for safety and jumped off the fast moving engine. As he did so the tender and the first car of the train left the rails and piled up against the bank of the cut through which the road passes and the unfortunate trainman was caught beneath the wreckage

The family barely escaped with their lives, it being necessary for Mr. and Mrs. Woodling to drop two of their children from an upstairs window into the waiting arms of neighbors attracted to the scene.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 22.—In an opinion delivered by the Attorney General's department today, it was declared that Commissioner of Public Welfare John M. Baldy was vested with full legal authority to inspect and demand the reform of any county prisons in the state.

The opinion stated that under the law the commissioner is bound to cause the inspection of all county prisons and, in the event that conditions are found which are in need of correction, to demand their correction. If this is not done, according to the opinion, the Commissioner should certify the facts to the District Attorney "to proceed by indictment or otherwise to remedy the objectionable condition."

Jimmie Flanagan, as he was affectionately known among his fellow employes and the host of friends he has made in Clearfield during his more than twenty years' residence, was one of the N. Y. C.'s most reliable and most competent railroaders. Sober, industrious and right living at all times, he possesed those manly qualities which attracted friends to him and held them as though in grips of steel. Of a cheery disposition, upright and honorable in all his dealings and undertakings he enjoyed the unbounded respect and esteem of all who knew him, and the news of his untimely death this morning caused many sad hearts in Clearfield.

The New York Central wrecking crew, which was promptly on the scene, worked for several hours before it was possible to remove the body from the wreckage, after which it was taken in charge by Undertaker F. B. Leavy and brought to his rooms here and prepared for burial.

He is survived by his widow, two sons and a daughter, the eldest of whom is but 11 years of age. He was the ideal husband and father and was idolized in his home and the sorrowing wife, and sorely bereaved little ones have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their sad and irreparable loss. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters:—John and Florence Flanagan, and Mrs. Harry Gray, of Salamanca, N. Y.; Ambrose and Leo Flanagan, Mrs. Jack Canavan and Mrs. Charles Gearhart, of Philadelphia, and William A. Flanagan, of Detroit, Mich.

The deceased was an earnest and highly consistent member of St. Francis Catholic church and his funeral will be held from that church Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, with interment in Calvary cemetery.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

This is a pretty decent old world of ours after all, and the honest people are very largely in the majority, regardless of muck rakers, muck raking and the evil minded pessimist. We are moved to make this observation by our own experience the past two weeks. A couple of weeks ago a West Side young lady lost $15 in money, a ten and a five dollar bill. With Christmas approaching with its universal demand for money one would think that if the proper occasion for temptation ever arises that would be one of the times. Yet no sooner had the ad recounting the loss appeared in The Progress than a bright-eyed Hillsdale lad, who goes to Junior High School, popped into the office with the money.

Experience No. 2 occurred the past week. A Second Ward young lady left her pocketbook containing a $20 bill on Turnpike avenue, and when notice of loss appeared in this paper a Paradise young man walked in and turned over pocketbook and money.

Our good friend Dr. Thomas E Finegan failed to keep his appointment with County Superintendent Trostle to address the Clearfield County Teachers' Institute. A lot of people who came to Clearfield expressly to hear Dr Finegan were very much disappointed when Pennsylvania's efficient school head failed to appear, and very naturally many of them were greatly peeved at that failure.

We do not know why Dr. Finegan did not appear, but suppose he had good and sufficient reason, altho we do believe he was a little derelict in not notifying Supt. Trostle that he could not be present, especially so when we recall that Dr. Lewis, his deputy and substitute, told the Institute Dr. Finegan asked him as early and "pinch hit" for him. However, be that as it may, Dr. Finegan's failure to keep his appointment roused one of these fellows, who put himself out to hear him, to righteous wrath and he unburdened himself of that wrath in a communication to The Progress yesterday. We simply recite this fact at this time to point a moral or make a comparison. This correspondent railed against Dr. Finegan (and we already have agreed he had some little reason therefor) without knowing why or what caused Dr. Finegan to change his plans relative to the making of the Clearfield trip. All through his tirade he breathes his personal disappointment, which moves us to remark that that is just one of the strong points in Dr. Finegan's favor, because about every criticism we have seen of Finegan and Fineganism since he took charge of affairs educational in Pennsylvania was based very largely on personal pique or disappointment, and was aimed not so much at what he did, but at his manner of doing it. When a man is put in charge of so great a system as that of the Department of Education in Pennsylvania, and so far behind the times as that was when he assumed charge three short years ago he naturally has to cause a lot of personal disappointment when he is pruning off the dead wood and getting down to healthy growth as he has so magnificently done, and the only thing surprising to us at this distance is that there hasn't been even a great deal more of it.

Finegan's end has certainly justified the means thus far. Let us hope in the interest of our public schools that he may be allowed to continue the work he has so signally begun, and maybe some time later on we can induce the worthy state school head to make a date with us and keep it.

Finegan is "there' both ways from the middle," even if he did disappoint us

That a man is best known by his habits and his traits of character was proven today when the news of the death of James Flanagan was broadcasted about the city. One of our citizens, on being told of the accident, stated that he did not know Mr. Flanagan. The informant then said, "Do you not recall seeing (here a physical description was given) almost always leading a couple of his children uptown during the evening?"

Instantly the identity was made. The man was linked with his children, to whom he was a companion.

What better tribute could be paid to James Flanagan?

The court opinion that the head of the Welfare Department of the State government has the right to inspect, and is bound to inspect, all county jails, is a step in the right direction.

Men may be put in prison because they are dangerous to society or for the purpose of punishment for a wrong deed, but in neither case is there any justification for allowing conditions which debase them, contributes to an outraged state of mind and wrecks their health.

We hope Dr. Baldy will begin at once. He will reveal conditions which will shock a civilized people.

We cannot help but be reminded at this season of the year of many of the really worthwhile things that people are doing. Some few months ago when a couple of families in this neighborhood lost their homes and their clothing by fire, the C. D. of A. stepped in and gave substantially of the necessities to put them on their feet and make them comfortable. A few weeks ago a man was convicted of a heinous crime by the criminal court and given a long sentence. His family was left destitute. The C. D. of A. clothed the children and helped in other ways to lighten their burden. This same organization is attending, at considerable expense, to the trimming of the Christmas tree at the Liberty Theatre for the big time Monday.

None of the beneficiaries of this organization in these cases cited belong to the same church as the members of the C. D of A.

The C. D. of A. is one of the auxiliary organizations of the sect that the Ku Klux Klan would teach us to despise and persecute.

How, in your mind, do these organizations measure up by the standard of Americanism and the measure of Christianity?

The Greatest Birthday

Three wise men followed the star that lead to the manger where the spirit of service was born into the world 1900 years ago.

All wise men today build their lives and the institution which they establish on this same spirit of service and helpfulness.

Our vision of service to this community enables this bank to enter very genuinely into the Yuletide spirit with its friends.

$104.00

The Girl Scouts are able to report the following total sale of tuberculosis stamps—$104.00 worth. Most of this was sold on the first of December when Dr. Frantz met the girls at the Scout room and assigned territory. It was a bad rainy day but the weather seemed not to be a deterrent and the bulk of the work was quickly and cheerfully done. Selling was done by teams of two, the following making the largest sales: Anna Hall and Nan Quigley of Troop 7, $16.52; Rebecca Carey and Edith Shaw, Troop 5, $15.68.

Troop 3 distributed all the posters to the business places and Troop 6 to the schools. Some stamps and stickers are still in the hands of scouts, the total to be added later.

It is thoroughly proved that the scouts are an efficient and willing ally and will continue to be an asset to the town.

The Christmas box sent this morning to Cresson was very creditable to the few scouts who had apparently read the paper. Made up by contributions from a small fraction of the total membership, it was nevertheless big enough to make a real addition to the holiday of the little patients at the sanitarium.

The list of names of girls sent by the superintendent to whom scouts were to write still hanging in the scout rooms with half the number untaken. This is not new business but cupids mail. A Christmas note to a sick child is worth far more than the trouble of writing it so scouts who have not done so are urged to clean up the list.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

Concerning Riches.

There is a burden of care in getting riches, fear in keeping them, emptation in using them, guilt in abusing them, sorrow in losing them and a burden of account at last to be given up concerning them.

Most Desirable Qualification.

Common sense is the genius of humanity.—Goethe.

The Second King.

That men may rise in time and lasting memory from evil conditions is evidenced by the fact that a young French nobleman named Henri D'Orleans, who fled from the French revolution to Lot don, is known to this day as "The S. ond King." He made his living by dressing salads in the French and Italian ways—then unknown in England—and soon attained great fame and fortune.

Much Trouble for an Excuse.

We can't expect much marital reforms in the world as long as men are cussed enough to join the American Astronomical society just so they can stay out every night without making excuses.—Buffalo Evening Times.

Ty Cobb's First Snow in Decade

PERIODS OF LIFE

Have You Reached The Age of 40?

People aged 40 or over should guard against colds, grippe, influenza and pneumonia. The following symptoms indicate physical decay and lessen your resistance to attacks of colds:

Constipated bowels — indigestion, sour gassy stomach, pain around the heart, shortness of breath, congested liver and weak kidneys.

Health, the most precious gift in life, should be carefully watched by everyone. Millions of people today are guarding their health and keeping their system regulated by using Bulgarian Herb Tea.

The rich juices, brewed from the roots, barks, leaves, herbs, plants and flowers of Bulgarian Herb Tea, taken hot at bedtime stimulate and freshen the tired, run-down system and aid nature to cast the waste poisons from the clogged intestines and bowels. Just make up your mind to keep strong and well by using Bulgarian Herb Tea at least once each week. Just watch your health improve. You will never want to be without it. See your druggist today. He can honestly recommend Bulgarian Herb Tea.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. Harry Addleman, George street, was taken to Clearfield hospital Wednesday evening, suffering from a serious attack of pneumonia. The report this morning states that her condition is somewhat improved.

Ray Hile and wife, late of Berryville, Va., arrived in Curwensville yesterday afternoon and expect to spend the holidays with relatives. Mrs. Hile was Pearl Rafferty and the couple were married in Akron, Ohio, some three months ago.

The many friends of Miss Bessie Milliron, daughter of James A. and Frances Milliron, of Ridge avenue will be surprised to learn of that young lady's marriage which took place in Washington, D. C., two weeks ago. The groom is a business man in the National City, whose name is C. W. MacSweeney. The ceremony was performed in the church of Christ.

The Progress correspondent is in receipt of the roll of honor pupils in the Curwensville public schools during education week. The tabulated list of names is too lengthy for publication, we are more than sorry to state. The American Legion expect to further honor these honor pupils but it has not been made public just how it is going to be done. The Legion deserves great credit for the promoting of Honor Week in the Curwensville schools. Joshua Earl Sipes Post does not always make public what it is doing for education and humanity. It is one of the greatest factors for good in this community. Any one who is eligible to belong to the American Legion thereby bears with him a mark of distinction and honor that no money can buy and that nothing can take away.

Orville King, son of Dr. M. O. King, who has been working in Philadelphia for some months past, has returned to his Curwensville home and will spend the holiday season with his parents and friends.

The report in circulation yesterday stating that the Patton bank block had been sold to a combination of young men is erroneous, according to a statement made by C. S. Russell, to the writer. As we stated a few days since, negotiations are going on for the purchase of the building, but up until a late hour last night no sale or transfer had been made.

It was reported to the writer yesterday morning that there were several destitute families residing within this borough. One family, where in there is sickness, had no coal and very little to eat. We reported the condition of this one particular case to one of the town's merchants, and he declared that he would attend to this case individually, and we have sufficient faith in his sincerity to believe that he did just what he said he

"Gentleman Jim" made a brief return to the squared circle, not to face an opponent but to referee a bout between a couple of tiniweights in a Christmas Fund benefit. The two youngsters who did their stuff like veterans are Willie Wargo (right) and Harold Jensen (left). Note Willie's business-like crouch.

Samaritans step forward and do likeSamaritans ste pforward and do likewise. "Bread cast upon the waters will be returned ten fold," so saith the scripture. No doubt there are many more families in Curwensville who would appreciate a little Christmas cheer in the way of food, coal or clothing.

It was given out in town the other day that a new six foot vein of coal had been discovered in the Glen Richey section and some feet underneath the vein that has been almost worked out. If this statement proves correct, and for the sake of the residents who reside in our sister town, we sincerely hope it will, it is bound to renew activities in the coal mining industry never before attained in that end of Lawrence township.

Married, on Thursday evening, by Rev. Dr. Collins, Leo Sschrock, of Irona, and Miss E. Gertrude Rider, of Curwensville. The bride is a daughter of James Rider.

High Hat Turned Into Handbag

At a London social function the other day one of the women guests carried a bag which was generally remarked upon. The material looked like black velvet, but had a remarkable sheen. The owner explained she had made the bag herself out of her husband's old top hat, from which she had peeled the beaver. Ivory mounts completed the scheme.

"Old Libby Prison."

The Chicago Historical society says that when the Libby prison was torn down from within the present Old Colony building many of the bricks which were in the bona fide walls of the prison were taken by the wrecking company and became the foundation for a livery stable. The contents of the museum and some of the bricks, however, are in the Gunther collection located in the building of the Chicago Historical society.

Not Much to It.

Frocks for Girls

COPYRIGHT BY BELL SYNDICATE

An added fulness at each side held in by ribbon ties, gives one of the newest dresses the popular silhouette. Straight unbroken fronts and back panels are seen on many of the smartest frocks and the severity of the style is usually relieved in some such manner as in the model sketched. Blouses and tunics are always becoming to young girls and here is one that carries the style by pleating from neckline to hemline. Sleeves are cushed to show a lining of contrasting color are new and pleasing.

Took It Literally.

For the first time in her life a young woman was traveling on a train. When the train pulled up at a station, en route, she heard the conductor call, "All change here." She rushed to the door and said to the brakeman "Would you mind giving me my brown gown on the trunk in the baggage car?"

Mental Brutality.

Muggins—"He is being sued for divorce. His wife charges him with mental brutality. I wonder what that means?" Buggins—"Mental brutality is the crime practiced by a truthful man who tells a woman just exactly what he thinks of her."

Politics.

Politics is the only serious subject that men think themselves qualified to act upon without any previous education whatever. The awful fact of politics is that we do not take the trouble seriously to understand the political situation.—Hugh Price Hughes.

A Medical Epitaph.

I can't beat "Tears cannot restore him, therefore I weep," says a correspondent, but the following pithy epitaph on the tomb of a doctor (given me, I hasten to say by a medical man) comes near it: "He survived all his patients."—Manchester Guardian.

WE BEG PARDON, MRS. FLEMING

A long time since we decided that if come person horned into our office and sort of offhandedly informed us Lincoln had been shot, we would refuse to give ear to or credence to the story until we had opportunity to get hold of a Barnes History of the U. S. A. and satisfied ourselves after due investigation the story was true.

We deviated yesterday far enough from our hitherto unshaken resolve to print a story given us about a little occurrence down in Fourth Ward yesterday. Our informant stated that Mrs. J. B. Fleming had attempted to hustle along the range fire by the oil can route and had received painful burns about the hand and arm while prompt action by neighbors saved her Eighth street home from destruction by fire.

We printed the story, too. Today that same informant tells us it was not Mrs. Fleming at all but her neighbor, Mrs. Victor Temple and that Mrs. Fleming was one of the fire brigade and first aid corps to the rescue when Mrs. Temple emulated Mollie Maguire.

Our hat is off to Mrs. Fleming and we humbly beg her pardon while assuring her this is the first mistake we ever acknowledged.

"LISTEN TO ME," A GREAT SHOW, IS COMING JAN. 2nd.

It is interesting to know that America's greatest success, "Listen to Me," which swept all before it last season, proving one of the most popular and entertaining offerings of the entire season's output in the musical comedy fields, will be presented at Driggs Theatre Tuesday night, January 2nd.

"Listen To Me" is a modern extravaganza; it possesses music, dancing, lights, novelties and pretty girls it is gorgeously mounted and whirls one from Bades to the North Pole and back through candyland, presenting some of the most bewildering scenic effects ever offered before the footlights, particularly the snow storm, glaciers and aurora borealis in the land of the midnight sun.

With a cast of par-excellence, "Listen To Me" is promise das one of the few really dependable offerings of the season. Written by Charles George, who penned the book, lyrics and music, it possesses every available bit of comedy, brilliant setting and many of the smartest musical scores heard in a long time.

Tuneful and gay, with a romping, singing, dancing chorus of bewitch girls, who had fair to rival the Ziegfeld types, have proven a great asset to this remarkable success from its opening performance, and the theatre goers may look forward to their visit when they will share honors with the excellent cast whom they are called upon to support.

Many have become charmed wit. its tuneful score—others have adored its gorgeous scenic investiture, while many have claimed that the cast and chorus have been responsible for its phenomenal success; however, it requires a combination of book, music, novelties, costumes, cast and chorus to successfully present a great extravaganza and "Listen To Me" is indeed fortunate in possessing these many attributes.

Endurance Test.

Wealth is honorable, and may be used most blessedly when men regard themselves as being what indeed they are—stewards of it, and not the owners; when they know how to acquire without avarice, and how to spend without grudging.—Archdeacon Farrar.

Gasoline Lost by Evaporation.

The volume of gasoline that is lost by evaporation in one stage in the handling of crude oil is equal to one-thirtieth of the country's annual gasoline production.

DRIGGS THEATRE ONIGHT

Uncle Sam Mixes In the Turkish Broil

Almost any pleasant morning, these last five weeks, a smooth-shaven, boyish-looking American could have been seen walking bareheaded from the Hotel Beaurivage in Lausanne along the lakeside to another hotel, to join a company of top-hatted, frock-coated, dignified European diplomats.

If Richard Washburn Child was only an "unofficial observer" at the Lausanne Conference it would be difficult to deny that he was the "observed of all observers." An "unofficial observer" on such occasions as these is generally supposed to be seen and not heard, but Ambassador Child has been heard—and listened to attentively—at Lausanne. Europe heard this representative of a nation officially committed to non-interference in European affairs arise day after day to state definitely and forcefully the policy of the United States on points of controversy between the Western Powers and the new Turkey which has replaced the "Sick Man of Europe."

Press correspondents at Lausanne have called attention to the leading part played in the deliberations by our observers. What does this mean, our editors have been wondering, as they read the dispatches from the Swiss city. Are we really intervening? "Isn't Mr. Child wading into the Lausanne Conference rather more deeply than is permitted to a mere observer?" queries the Dallas News (Dem.). The United States, remarks the Utica Press (Ind.), "would appear to be in a position of playing an important if not a decisive role." Others wonder what will come next.

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week (Dec 23) takes up the story of American participation at Lausanne as sketched from day to day by correspondents and interpreted by contemporaneous editorial comment. Other timely news-articles in this number are:
